DR. MARQUES' REJOINDER

Defends Theosophy Against Bishop.

QUESTIONS HIS LORDSHIP'S DATA

Says Theosophists Do Not Seek Converts and Are Not Disturbed by Pastors.

When interviewed last night in regard to Bishop Willis' pastoral letter attacking theosophists, Dr. Marques, president of the local Theosophical Society, was quite emphatic in the expression of his opinion.

"I have not had time to review the Bishop's letter very carefully," said he, "but a casual glance at it was enough to show me that the reverend gentleman is thoroughly ignorant of the doctrine of theosophy, which he presumes to attack without informing himself even as to the ordinary terms used to broadly express its theories.

"In the first place, theosophists do not proselyte; that is, they do not seek to convert people to their belief, nor to change the opinions of any one; therefore, the Bishop's accusation that we are trying to draw away people from Christianity is false and unfounded. I do not consider Bishop Willis' letter worthy of any extended notice, since he makes no charge that is other than absurd and ridiculous; his letter is of no interest to theosophists, as theosophists are not seeking converts, and therefore do not fear attack, even if such attacks as this could work injury, which they cannot. The only effect that the Bishop's letter can have on us is in that it may advertise theosophy; and inasmuch as through his letter some people may be prompted to investigate theosophy, we must tender the Bishop our thanks for his letter. Those already within our ranks will pay not the slightest attention to the pastoral or anything like it. We have nothing to fear from an impartial investigation, and if, through the Bishop's letter, any one makes an investigation we shall not lose anything by it, and may gain a new member.

"The Bishop makes a mistake in stating that theosophy comes from Buddhism. Buddhism itself was a reformation of Hindu creeds, started by Krishna, who died about 5,000 years ago, so that it is not indebted either to Christianity or the Hebrew religion, as it antedates them both.

"The Bishop refers to reincarnation as being synonymous with metempsychosis, which is a different thing entirely. He quotes a single example from the Bible, interpreting it as a proof against reincarnation. We interpret this very passage quite differently, and the Bible, as we read it, is full of instances that support the theory.

"As to Bishop Willis' advising his flock against theosophists on the ground that theosophy is dangerous to Christianity, I will say that the advice is entirely unnecessary, as we are not seeking converts from his flock, and also that the accusation that we would alienate people from their beliefs, is untrue.

"Until the Bishop makes some argument that is more worthy of notice than that of his pastoral letter, I have nothing more to say."

SOLDIERS PUSHED THE TRAIN.

That case reported from the front of a train being pushed up a steep incline by soldiers makes possible the Irish story of a guard calling through the carriage windows: "Third-class passengers get out and push behind!" In the west Australian bush a gigantic native was once said to have put his back against a locomotive, which he had private reasons for detaining, and keeping it at the station for some time. Flocks of sheep have sometimes done the same, but only the other day near Cernay, in Alsace, an immense swarm of caterpillars "held up" a train. In a recent Indian flood a train was stopped dead by a large trout! And on one of the new Irish light railways a porter was heard calling: "Any one there for here, get out!"

DANDRUFF WON'T WASH OUT.

The Germ that Causes It Has to be Destroyed to Cure Dandruff.

Many a woman spends an hour twice a week scouring her scalp, thinking scrubbing off the scurf will cure the dandruff. Two hours a week, at the age of 40 years, she has spent 260 days of 12 hours each or two-thirds of a year of her life, in that vain hope; vain, because you can't cure dandruff without killing the dandruff germ, and the only hair preparation on earth that will do that is Newbro's "Herpicide"—also a delightful hair dressing, and thoroughly antiseptic against all contagion from use of others' hair brushes. It is also a delightful hair dressing.

HE WAS NOT MODEST.

She—It is no use; I wouldn't marry the handsomest man alive.
He—Well, anyhow, you will henceforth have the satisfaction of knowing that he has asked you.

OFFICE OF CARROLL WHITAKER, ATTORNEY.

Hilo Hawaii.

Hilo, Hawaii, June 7, 1901.

Dear Sirs—In my innocence I purchased here in Hilo a jar of your

PIN-MONEY PICKLES (put up by Mrs. E. G. Kidd, Richmond, Virginia.)

It brought me great trouble, and one of three things must occur:

1. You must stop making them; or, 2. I must get them at less expense; or 3. I'm a ruined man.

Since my first venture I've had many "jars." My family from early morning "Pickles;" neighbors ring the doorbell and shout "Pickles;" relatives visit me in expectation of "Pickles." Your pickles are my Nemesis. Please, dear sir, quote them by the keg, barrel, hoghead, ton or shipload, and "preserve" me. Yours very truly,

CARROLL WHITAKER.
